

Applications IVV-Olympiad 2017 Preliminary Check

According to § 2 par. 4 of the Olympiad Order the IVV Presidium has to do a preliminary check on the presented applications after the deadline. Herewith, the report will be published according to § 2 par. 5:

The Presidium has checked the submitted applications of the member countries Austria and Germany and thanks the members for their willingness to host the IVV-Olympiad in 2017.

Preliminary Check

Both applications meet the requirements of the Olympiad Order, except the following items:

1. A signed document of the hosting city stating that they agree to the terms and conditions of the IVV and the hosting country.
2. The range of offers of sport and cultural events associated with the Olympiad.
3. Coordination of technical arrangements, including the schedule.
4. Both applications were handed in after the deadline.

Result

As there were received no further applications before the deadline, the applications of Austria and Germany are accepted for election at the IVV Congress of Delegates in Hamburg. The documents mentioned in 1. – 3. must be handed in immediately after the election of the host.
