

Rules of Finances and Dues

of the International Public Sports Association (IVV)

Proposed amendment of 1th December 2009

Budget

- (1) A budget will be drawn up for each fiscal year by the treasurer in agreement with the IVV Presidium. It will be approved by the Congress of Delegates.
- (2) The budget contains all in the fiscal year for the fulfillment of the association's tasks
 - anticipated revenues,
 - anticipated expenses.
- (3) The budget must be balanced. The available means of the budget have to be used economically and efficiently.
- (4) Reserve funds can only be dissolved or reduced by discussing the budget at the Congress of Delegates.

Budget Accounts and Taxes

- (1) For tax purposes, the Treasurer, or a tax consultant, will prepare a financial report showing all profits and losses at the end of the fiscal year.
- (2) The Treasurer is responsible for all tax matters. In case of a revenue hearing, he will consult with the President about whether or not to seek legal counsel.
- (3) Any member of the tax consulting business who is knowledgeable on tax matters can be requested to act as the tax consultant.

Treasurer

- (1) The Treasurer, who will be properly qualified for this position, will attend to the financial matters of the Association in cooperation with the President.
- (2) All payments will be authorized by the President or his representative (§9 (5) of the statutes). This can also be after the fact. Individual expenses in excess of €2500 must be authorized by the Presidium if they have not been included as expenses in the approved budget.
- (3) The Treasurer will present a financial report orally at each Congress of Delegates. On demand he will provide the President or the Presidium with information on the financial position of the Association.
- (4) The monetary Capital of the IVV is to be held in an interest-bearing account, insofar as it is not required to meet the Federation's current expenditure. A current account is to be set up through which the business of paperless transfer of funds can be carried out.
- (5) The Treasurer is responsible for managing the accounts, without detriment to the overall responsibility of the Presidium. Management of the account books and bank accounts is governed by the decisions of the Presidium.

(6) The Treasurer will ensure that all financial transactions are recorded correctly by the Presidium and the Congress of Delegates.

§ 4 Audits

(1) The annual account and its vouchers should be audited specifically to insure that:

- the budget has been adhered to
- individual invoices have been documented and recorded properly;
- assets have been recorded and estimated properly.

(2) The auditors are pledged to silence to third parties.

(3) Prior to the audit in the Congress of Delegates, the auditors must give 14 days written notice to the Presidium. The original of this report has to be added to the minutes of the Congress of Delegates.

(4) After the presentation of the financial audit report, one of the auditors shall make a motion to relieve the Presidium of financial responsibility for its actions during the fiscal year audited.

§ 5 Duty of Dues

(1) Every member association has to pay an annual due to the IVV.

(2) Dues are determined by the Congress of Delegates and are calculated according to the number of affiliated organizations as of December 31 of the previous fiscal year. This count will be forwarded to the IVV Office by January 31.01 of the new fiscal year. Should the count not be received in time the IVV Treasurer has the right, to use the previous year's total plus 20 percent for the membership count.

(3) Invoices to the national member associations must be sent out by February 28.

(4) The total annual due must be paid no later than March 31 of the current fiscal year.

§ 6 Delay of Payment

(1) A federation is considered to be late with its payment if its dues have not been paid according to § 5 (4).

(2) The consequences of late payment may be:

- Non-inclusion of dates in the IVV event book for the following year
- Loss of the voting right as member
- Exclusion from IVV after the payment deadline and an additional respite of one month given by the IVV Headoffice by registered letter.

§ 7 Travel costs

Claims for travel expenses have to be made according the valid version of the „Luxembourg Chart for travel abroad“.
